Journalistic Priorities

Again the left leaning mainstream press has shown its true colors and agenda by wasting thousands of hours and millions of column inches hashing and rehashing whether or not Vice President Cheney was properly chastised and raked over the coals for his accidental shooting of hunting friend Harry Whittington in Texas... or was it an accident???? While the media insisted on casting aspersions on the Vice President real tragedies continued to take a back seat in making an appearance on the front page or being the lead items on radio and TV news.

Murderous Muslims continued their unfounded and mis-led rioting, burning and killing of Christians and other innocent victims in Pakistan, Indonesia, Nigeria and other points around the world. Although its been proven that the killings and riots have been fueled by intentional lies, withholding facts, and hate speeches by Muslim "holy" men over loudspeakers it is doubtful you will hear it mentioned on the majority of cable and network news programs, nor read about it in the New York Times or other liberal rags.

Did you know that each day wasted on the Cheney "scandal" there were thousands of innocent babies being murdered viciously, without regard to their pain or suffering, while still in the womb of their host female. I would call them mothers but no loving mother would allow her baby to be poisoned, burned and/or ripped from her uterus just for convenience sake. Did we read about these thousands of murders in the press? No way! Absolutely not! It didn't warrant the slightest mention... even on the back page. Baby killings have become so commonplace it is no longer newsworthy.

Has any leading newspaper, or non-religious radio or TV station done an in depth investigation as to why the Muslim population of the world can't be reigned in from their pogrom on Christians and non-Muslims? The answer is no, and there won't be any until it's too late. Here are a couple of comments I've read about the Muslims, and I quote... "It's been said that what we are seeing in the Muslim nations across the globe could be the beginning of a clash of civilizations." It's also been said, "It's coming close to an outright holy war against anyone who doesn't believe in their Prophet Mohammed." No kidding, what great wisdom!

Folks, let's get serious... that which is going on now with the world's Muslim population is a holy war and a definite clash of civilizations. It has been so for centuries and will continue to be into the future. Anyone who reads knows it has been the agenda of the Islamic faith from its inception to achieve world domination, at any cost, and the killing will not cease until they have achieved their goal...or... until they have been destroyed. I have made similar comments in this column many times and will continue to do so until someone out there sees the truth in what's happening in the real world and starts taking steps to quash the violence and killing. Political correctness, as my last column stated, does nothing but show fear and weakness and will only lead to more riots and escalated killings.

New Mexico Governor Bill Richardson recently made the statement the only solution to the rampaging Muslim situation is to bring the UN and Russia into the picture and allow them to negotiate with the Muslims and representatives of the terrorists. He says we should have a Summit Meeting with them! Liberals are always suggesting summit meetings. How ludicrous! No one can negotiate in good faith with those who have no respect for individual human life and a complete disregard for the freedom and rights of all mankind even their own people. To think otherwise shows a complete lack of knowledge, or intentionally choosing to ignore the facts pertaining to the Muslim religion and its founder Muhammed.

If we continue to allow indiscriminate rioting and killing of anyone who disagrees with them... even their own moderate brothers and sisters of the Islamic faith... these fanatics will grow even stronger in their cause and will actually believe victory over the world is possible with their violence and threats of violence. They are being told by their "holy" leaders that they are invincible and that the appointed time has come to rise and let their voices be heard... "There is only one God, Allah, and Muhammed is his Prophet." That is their battle cry and they are getting louder and louder as their flames of hate are growing higher and higher with each passing day. Catering to them and acquiescence to their demands must stop immediately.

Let me close with this last thought on Political Correctness running amuck. What is going on with Saddam Hussein? I thought he was on trial. What would happen in an American court of law if the defendant would rant and rave, disrupting the court and spew out invectives against the Judges or those testifying against him? We all know the average American judge would have the accused handcuffed to his chair, gagged and made to sit and listen to his accusers, and if he continued to interrupt with grunts and groans he would be removed permanently from the court room. He would not be coddled and allowed to disrupt the proceedings as Saddam has been doing. Of course there is the ACLU who would scream its head off. If the judges in Saddam's trial do not take control of the proceedings, and stop giving in to this cruel individual's antics and threats, his followers will feed off his histrionics and continue to pour suicide bombers into the streets of Baghdad. Personally, I'd put him into a bullet proof, sound-proof glass cage as the Israelis did with Adolph Eichman. Let's get serious folks... it's time to announce there's a new sheriff in town and tell Saddam to sit down and shut up... or out he goes!
